

A Full Bowl
Revelation 4:1-4

1. Who are the _____ in the Book of Revelation?
2. They represent the _____, the _____ of Jesus Christ.
3. The first clue that they represent the _____ are the _____ that they _____.
Revelation 4:4, 3:4-6, 19:8.
4. The second clue that they represent the _____ are the _____ on their _____.
Revelation 4:4, 2:10-11, 3:11; 2 Timothy 4:8; James 1:12.
5. The third clue that they represent the _____ is the fact that they are _____ on _____ around the _____ of God.
Revelation 4:4, 3:21-22, 2:26-27; 1 Corinthians 6:2; 2 Timothy 2:12.
6. The fourth clue that they represent the _____ is the use of the _____.
Revelation 4:4; Acts 14:23, 20:17; 1 Peter 5:1-2.
7. The fifth clue that they represent the _____ and not _____ is the contrast between the _____ and _____ in Revelations. Revelation 5:1-5.
8. A sixth clue that they represent the _____ is the fact that they _____ the Redemption _____. Revelation 5:6-10, 1:4-6.
9. The seventh clue that they represent the _____ is the fact that they possess the _____ of the _____.
Revelation 5:8.

10. If the _____ do indeed represent the _____ then it is easy to conclude that the _____ will be _____ before the _____ year _____ Period. Revelation 4:1-4.
11. If the _____ do indeed represent the _____ it can be concluded that the _____ that we _____ in this life are collected in a _____ and are our possession in heaven forever. Revelation 5:8.
12. Another conclusion that can be arrived at is that our collected _____ continue to be a key part of our _____ of _____ in _____ forever. Revelation 8:1-5.
13. Another conclusion that can be arrived at is that our collected _____ continue to be _____ by God in _____ . Revelation 8:1-5.
14. When we get to _____ we will be very _____ in character, in _____, in relationship to Jesus, and in _____ to God.
2 Corinthians 5:10; 1 Corinthians 15:41-42; Matthew 18:1, 4, 20:23.
15. One of the key _____ that we will _____ greatly in when we get to _____ is the _____ of _____ that are in our bowls.
Matthew 10:42; James 5:16; Colossians 1:9.